I own the first three books but have only read the first one, I think that I should have continued with this particular series in order. Scarlett's character development is one of the things that I love most about her books, she gives you the time to fully fall in love with her characters and become invested in their stories. I'm not sure how any reader lasted without being able to read all these stories at once, but i'm so glad I did. Anditwassooogood.
