The Aspect experiment did not invalidate Copenhagen, but it transferred the whole debate from the hypothetical to the scientifically tested level. No matter, energy or conventional information is transferred, and the experiment is not regarded as a violation of relativity, but it is demonstrated that quantum properties can correlate instantaneously over any distance.

claims that when we look at the extension of matter and separation of its parts in space, we can see nothing in these concepts that helps us with understanding consciousness.
