It was at the suggestion of this brother, who had seen a vision of adoring angels, that Father John Houghton consumed the sacred particle rejected by a sick monk. Our founders were doubtless fully aware of the assiduity of the Carthusians in praying for the faithful departed, which made the Charterhouse a foundation particularly well suited to the spot where so many thousands lay The London Charterhouse – so many thousands who had The London Charterhouse hurried into eternity with hardly a moment to prepare themselves, and deprived of the last rites of the Church. The annual reports of the Chapter show that those who suppose that prior to the year 1 the various Charterhouses were independent are quite mistaken.
