Bat Boy's aria pleading for acceptance asks for too much and horrifies the townspeople. And not only does all this provide structural signposts for the audience, but it also provides a strong dramatic structure for the actors.

The film's producers stated in the DVD extra that the film was not intended to

Inside the Box. In Victorian England, Count Dracula represented a kind of unfettered sexuality, a freedom of sexual expression, a freedom of women to be fully sexual and to enjoy their bodies without responsibility. Both shows kept audiences laughing by taking Broadway musical conventions and either turning them upside-down or taking them to such an extreme they no longer could be taken seriously.

Colin Jackson. Chappell, Ian, author. Time to Declare. And as the song ends, Meredith hits her final note and holds it while Edgar sings a lovely final counter-melody that ends in perfect, simple harmony.
