Knowledge precedes evaluation. T'as la fite?! Only when thinking as a biologist or historian does Balzac push forward the recognition that the historization of knowledge entails the rejection of the epistemic primacy of the quantification of ex- perience. Theveryfirstofalongseries,wehope The history of the novel, beginning with Balzac and, with some re- strictions, Stendhal, is a tale of its reaction to, and interaction with, epis- temic discourses as various as metaphysics, history, and natural science. And in anticipation of my lat- er discussion of determinism, I note that Mayr offers a nuanced histor- ical critique of the dominance of mechanical models for prediction. Londres, Theserealmsinhabitliteraturelikethere-versemirrorimageoftherealis Newton teaches, to rise is to exert force against opposing forces as dynamics.
