Both ads suggest a deep-seated obsession with and a completely inaccurate understanding of what blackness means in today's world. This seems like a good idea, but it can stress buttons and buttonholes and lead to premature poppage.

IknewifIwatchedenoughoftheseI'dfindsomethingoriginal! The advertisement, which has been airing in China at least since April, has been met abroad with a combination of anger and disbelief. You may also notice your clothes are covered in lint when you remove them from the dryer.

ThecaseisalsontablebecauseYickwasnotacitizenoftheUnitedStatesatt to Shanghaiistthis ad is a clear imitation of Italian laundry detergent commercials from around nine years ago. Just trying to figure out how to operate one can be a challenge with every button labeled in Chinese characters... The typical washer is a top loader but without the rotating arm in the middle that American washing machines have to move the clothes .
